FINDS SUN AFTER 9 YEARS

Mother Mourned For Dead Fifteen-Year-Old Lad.

Sunbury, Pa., Oct. 26.—By an unusual occurrence Mrs. James Berkhelmer, of this place, and her son, Albert Berkhelmer, fifteen years old, will soon be reunited after nine years' absence, during which time she has mourned him as dead. The boy is fifteen years old.

She read in a newspaper about a boy of the same name having been found in Philadelphia and talked with the police there. Then she learned that the boy was her son.

Nine years ago his father and mother parted and the father took the son. Later a letter told her that the boy had died.

FARMERS' DAY BIG SUCCESS

Large Number of County People Come to Gettysburg to Visit its One Day Fair. Fine Exhibits and Everybody Has Good Time.

Gettysburg's first annual Farmers' Day was one great big success according to the unanimous verdict of one of the largest crowds of county people which ever gathered in the town on a single day. The weather man helped along too, and early in the morning every road leading to Gettysburg had its share of teams on the way to town.

The exhibits were numerous and fine, a testimonial to the prowess of Adams County's farmers in agriculture and to their wives in the art of cookery. Every article on the long list of exhibits had its share of displays, and grains, fruits, vegetables, flowers and all the other products of farm and garden, together with canned fruits, jellies, cakes, pies and many other products of the kitchen, were here by the thousands, yes, by the thousands according to actual count while fancy work and odd articles were on hand in profusion.

Six judges, starting early in the morning, had their hands more than full and were sorely at a loss time after time to pick the finest of the very fine for the awards of the prizes. The judges were: Z. H. Cashman of New Oxford; H. G. Baugher, of Aspers; John Black, of Barlow; Mrs. Clara Rebert of Cashtown; Mrs. George Kehil of Fairfield; Mrs. E. Dale Heiges of Biglerville. They form two separate committees and went from place to place testing and tasting picking the winners with the utmost fairness and impartiality. The complete list will be ready for publication on Tuesday, it is thought.

The crowd of visitors to the town exceeded even the fondest hopes of those who had Farmers' Day arrangements in charge and it was a good natured, merry crowd, too.

The entire gathering was happy and pleased with itself. It was the first day Adams County has had just to itself since the old fair days and it was one grand big reunion—no outsiders to bother and take up room as is the case on Memorial Day but just one big assemblage of "home folks".

One of the main attractions of the day was the arrival of a load of ninety four people from Zora, driven by Oscar Stine who had a team of six horses and eight mules. They entered the competition at the Landan drug store where they were counted.

The stores and other places of business had hundreds of visitors all day long who came, most of them, to see the various exhibits while many remained to buy the special Farmers' Day bargains which were offered. Some of the stores gave souvenirs and these were eagerly sought. A number of the stores had announced displays of antique clothing, furnishings, pictures and so on and there were plenty of things on all sides on which to feast the eyes.

The streets, too, had their share of amusement for everyone. Not a few of the exhibits were placed in the windows and all livestock was put out in front of the stores in coops. Several enterprising firms put grotesquely dressed men on the streets who advertised their wares and these provided amusement for the little folks and entertainment for all others.

The Citizens' and the Gettysburg College bands came out in the afternoon and gave all afternoon concerts to the great delight of all who heard them. The picture shows gave free tickets to all exhibitors and had as many people as they could handle in the afternoon. Everybody was out for a good time and no one was disappointed.

The contests were good features and the special stunts made lots of fun, not only for those who took part but for everybody who watched them. Guessing proved alluring to hundreds and the many prizes offered to successful guessers were eagerly sought.

Success could be seen on all sides and the day will be long remembered by Adams County people.

EXPECT BETTER SERVICE ON W.M.

New Schedule will Do away with Some of the Difficulties, it is Thought. Morning Train Almost an Hour Earlier.

With the inauguration of a new schedule on the Western Maryland Sunday, October 27 it is expected that much better service will be given and the trains run on better time. The early morning train from the west will no longer have to wait on a western connection and as a result should be on time with considerable regularity.

Under the new schedule this early train will be due here at 8:41 instead of 9:40 as at present. The train from Baltimore now due at 10:04 will have 10:08 as its new time. The old schedule for the noon train from York will be resumed, arriving here at 12:10 and departing at 1:00. The afternoon train east will be due at 3:20 and west at 5:48 instead of 6:35. The 10:08 and 3:20 will be daily trains, the others daily except Sunday. On Sunday only there will be a train at 5:40 p.m. for Baltimore and intermediate points.

This new schedule is decidedly more satisfactory than the one under which the road has been operating for several weeks and is expected to be very gratifying to those who use the road and to all those who depend on the early morning mail for a large portion of their day's business correspondence.

Information from the management of the Western Maryland Railway explains to a great extent the troubles that in that line have recently caused much annoyance and inconvenience to its patrons.

The road is "certainly sick physically and mentally right now" declared an official of the company "but we are spending a great deal of money to cure our troubles and are going to spend a great deal more."

The cause of a great deal of irregularity on the road of late has been the reconstruction work. Fifty four bridges have been renewed between Hagerstown and Baltimore. Every one of the fifty four required trains passing over them at from four to ten miles per hour making it impossible to keep up to schedule time with passenger trains and to handle freights with regularity. These bridges have been put in to promote safety and to allow the road to use heavier engines thus enabling it to carry out its schedule.

Half of the bridge work is completed and the company expects by November 15th, to use its large new engines between Hagerstown and Baltimore on the main line which will prove a great help in keeping trains on time.

PREPARING FOR HUNTING SEASON

Adams County Gunners Prepare for Opening of the Hunting Season on November First. Game Reported Plentiful.

Sportsmen in Gettysburg and the county are busy cleaning their guns, conditioning their dogs and making other preparations for the opening of the hunting season, Friday, November 1.

Interest in hunting game seems to be growing. If the weather conditions are favorable on November 1, an increased number of men and boys will be afield the first day of the season. Some will spend only a day hunting, while others have made arrangements to be gone several days or a week.

Reports from the sections noted as rabbit hunting grounds, are to the effect that they are unusually plentiful this fall. Election day is known to hundreds of marksmen in the country as "rabbit day", because of the large number of gunners who spend this day after cotton tails. They are the early birds at the polling places and then start on the gunning trip.

Other game is reported equally abundant.

DEATH PENALTY FOR GEN. DIAZ

Sentence Suspended by Order of Supreme Court.

REBELS ARE STILL ACTIVE

President Madero and Senate in Sharp Discord Over Execution of Young General.

Mexico City, Mex., Oct. 28.—General Felix Diaz, leader of the revolution recently inaugurated in Vera Cruz, and three of his confederates have been sentenced to death by the court martial before which they were tried in that city.

At the same time word of the verdict against Diaz was received in Mexico City came the report that the military court had decided to recognize the order of suspension of sentence upon the revolutionary leader, granted by the supreme court, pending investigation as to whether the trial of Diaz should be by military or civil court.
Popular apprehension regarding the fact of Diaz has not been greatly allayed, however, by this action of the court martial.

The delay in the receipt of the news regarding the outcome of the military trial is characteristic of all communication between the capital and Vera Cruz. The uncertainty as to what is transpiring there has served to increase the tenseness of the situation.
Friends of Diaz still fear the consequences of the conflict of authority which has arisen between the judiciary and military courts. If the military court observes the order of the civil authority, the final disposition of the case will be long postponed. But it would be no surprise to thousands in Mexico City to receive a message announcing the execution of the rebel general and his associates.

Efforts to save their lives, especially that of Felix Diaz, continue unabated.
Prominent women, men high in affairs, members of congress and even high army officers, have appealed to President Madero for clemency. But to all he has given the same negative answer.

To a group of women he intimated that to show clemency would be construed by the world as an indication of weakness. He cited as an example that when he captured Juarez he pardoned General Navarro, which action the world attributed to weakness instead of to magnanimity.

The popular voice of protest has grown so strong against the execution of Diaz that there has arisen between the president and the senate a sharp discord, and as individuals the senators have seriously discussed the question of impeachment because of the administration's defiance of that body's interpellation Friday.

An incident showing the popular attitude occurred at Chapultepec on the occasion of a visit of a committee of women who pleaded for the lives of the condemned men. When leaving the castle they were cheered by cadets of the military college quartered in the same building.

That the quick suppression of the Diaz revolt has shown strength on the part of the government is conceded in the capital, but that the situation generally has been improved is a matter of doubt.

A number of rebel bands who were operating in many parts of the republic are still active and apparently as active as before. Added to the list is a well defined new revolt in Yu-catan.

automobiles and robbed the occupans, twenty-two in number, of their valuables, aggregating several hundred dollars.

The boys were masked and carried guns of convincing size. They placed several park settees across a popular boulevard drive which runs through Miller park and stopped six automobiles as they came along.
They lined chauffeurs and occupants up along the driveway, and while one of the bandits threatened them with a gun the other removed their valuables, consisting of money and jewelry. The robbers escaped.

Drank Quart of Whisky; Dies.

New York, Oct. 28.—In winning a bet that he could drink a quart of whisky at one pull, Edward Kane lost his life. As he died in agony at his home, to which he had staggered from an East Side saloon after downing the whisky, he told his wife of what he had done and charged that John Mann had made the wager and had bought the whisky for him. The police arrested Mann on a technical charge of having been implicated in Kane's death.

Allens Go to Meet Doom.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 28.—Floyd Allen and Claude Allen, his son, the Hills ville gunmen, were brought from the Roanoke jail to the state penitentiary under sentence of electrocution in November for their part in the murder of the Carroll court house last March.
Floyd Allen's wife has issued a public appeal for money to aid the effort to save the men from death.

FIRE SWEEPS BESIEGED CITY

Bulgarians Are Crawling Lines Around Adrianople.

TAKES THE CUTTER FORTS

Heavy Losses of Life on Both Sides, the Unburied Dead Covering the Battlefield—People Flee in Panic.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Oct. 28.—A portion of the Turkish city of Adrianople has been set on fire by the Bulgarian artillery, according to private dispatches received here from the vicinity.

The Bulgarian troops have taken the outlying forts of Maras, Hayavara and Subhan, lying to the north and northeast of the city, and have captured a railroad station in the extreme outskirts of the town. Eighteen hundred prisoners have fallen into their hands.

Very severe fighting has taken place both to the east and west of Adrianople, and the losses suffered by both sides have been heavy. Hundreds of unburied corpses are lying in the fields surrounding the city.

The Bulgarian army is reported to be advancing along the whole front, and a dispatch to the government organ, the Mir, says the Turks are re-reating in panic, while the civilian population is fleeing toward Constantinople. The Turkish main army, apparently, is completing its mobilization and is contenting itself for the present with fighting on the defensive.

The Turkish stronghold of Eskup has been taken by the allied Serbian and Bulgarian armies, the town surrendering without resistance. The village of Kotechavi was captured by the Bulgarians after severe fighting at the point of the bayonet.

It was officially announced that the spoils captured at Kumanova included fifty-five field guns, six mountain guns and six Maxim's, quantities of ammunition and stores and two aeroplanes.
At Skopje the Servians captured thirteen big guns and four Maxim's.

Forty thousand Turks were engaged in the fighting in this district. They are accused of massacring many women and children before they left the town. The most prominent Slav inhabitants were imprisoned, but were rescued by the first Serbian soldiers who entered.

A body of 500 Arnauts and Turks raised their white caps on their bayonets as a sign of surrender, and the Serbian commander gave the order to cease firing. When the Servians were within fifteen paces the enemy opened fire, whereupon the Servians charged and killed them all at the point of the bayonet.

The Turkish troops were the first to take the offensive in the battle that ended in the fall of Kumanova into the hands of the Serbian troops and opened up the way for their further advance on the stronghold of Eskup.
During a drizzling rain and heavy fog the Turkish troops advanced on a Serbian position five miles from Kumanova. As soon as they came into touch with the Serbian outposts heavy fighting began and lasted throughout the afternoon. Both armies suffered severe losses, but the Servians succeeded in staying the Turkish onslaught.

The battle was resumed at 1 o'clock in the morning, the Servians this time taking the offensive and attacking the Turkish troops, who had entrenched themselves during the lull in the fighting. After an artillery duel a general advance was ordered by the Serbian commander.

The ground over which the Serbian troops had to advance was open and the infantrymen were exposed to a sweeping fire. Nevertheless they stormed the Turkish trenches again and again until finally, at the point of the bayonet, they drove out the Ottoman troops. It took the Servians four hours to clear the valley, and then it was found necessary before occupying Kumanova to take the heights on the right bank of the river, to which the Turkish troops had retired in disorder.

At one period during the fighting the Serbian artillery annihilated three squadrons of Turkish cavalry, and the Turkish losses are said to have numbered 5000 killed and wounded. The Serbian casualties also were heavy.

Kills Three Children and Himself.

Paoli, Colo., Oct. 28.—C. G. Fox, a rancher living near here, shot and killed his six-year-old daughter, his four-year-old son and fourteen-month-old baby and committed suicide. The bodies were discovered by Mrs. Fox, who returned home an hour after the shooting.

Swoons as Bottle Cuts Her.

Altoona, Pa., Oct. 28.—While on her way for milk, Lenora Reinhardt, aged six years, fell and severed an artery in her right wrist on a fragment of glass from the milk jar. She almost died from loss of blood, and her father found her unconscious on the street.

Motorboat Sinks; Two Drown.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Oct. 28.—Two men were drowned and two narrowly escaped a similar fate when a speeding motorboat struck a snag which ripped out the bottom of the boat, sinking it in deep water.

Most Farmers

Do not object to their neighbors and friends hunting on their land or to any others who have due regard for their property, but all farmers do object to the hunter who tramples down grain, tears down fences and does damage.
The surest way to protect yourself is to placard your property. Cardboard trespass signs 5c. each, 6 for 25c.; muslin signs 10c. each, 3 for 25c. And in order to keep undesirable hunters from coming out to your land and possibly disregard such signs, the best thing you could do would be to place your name in our trespass list. Fifty cents for the entire season. See last page.

TO THE COUNTRY PEOPLE

An Appreciation of Farmers' Day

It is our privilege to thank you the people of Adams County, who so freely contributed to the success of our initial Farmers' Day. As it is impossible to personally address each one of you who entered into the spirit of the occasion we take this means of expressing our appreciation.

Adams County need feel no modesty in exhibiting her products of Agriculture and horticulture. Nor need the foods and delicacies prepared by her women give way to those of other localities. That the farmer's wife is an exceedingly important part of the household was demonstrated by her many excellent contributions to Saturday's fair.

Expressions of praise and surprise for the things shown were heard on every hand. All could not take prizes; but that all deserved a decided recognition is agreed. The experience of this one day has taught us that a number of little improvements can be made in the assured successful Farmers' Day to come. Beneficial suggestions were received from many of you and, that a bigger Farmers' Day will be an annual event is the consensus of opinion.

Our gratitude is due you for your liberal response to our effort and we are confident that this response will be renewed in 1913.

Didn't Look Like an Actor.

Lawrence Wheat (Larry for short), who has been more or less a Broadway star for several seasons, made his first big hit in the part of "Stub" Talmage in "The College Widow." Larry had not long been out of college when the Ade comedy was finishing its long run at the Garden theater. Two companies were to be placed on the road and Wheat, who had seen the play several times, felt that he was born to play the part of "Stub." Accordingly he waited upon Henry W. Savage, the producer.

Savage studied the applicant keenly.

"So you want to play the part of Stub?" said the colonel. "What makes you think you can play the part?"

"I'm just that sort of a type," said Wheat, swelling up his chest and trying to look real brave.

"Well," said the colonel, "we need an actor as well as a type for that part. Are you an actor?"

"I am," said Wheat.

"You don't look like an actor," said the colonel.

"I don't want to look like an actor," said Larry. "It's tough enough to have to be one."

That line got the job.

Some Words You Don't Know.

What is the use of coining slang words to express your meaning in a more picturesque fashion than your neighbor when the dictionary is full of words just as queer and far more correct. Here are a few perfectly good words to be found in any complete dictionary of the English language. But don't you go to the dictionary for them—yet. See first if you can figure out their meaning. Then, when you have looked them up, spring them on the next fellow. He will either brand you as a highbrow or else admire you as the inventor of a new language, though you are neither. Here are the words:

Opuscule, tobaccoconing, noddie, node, futtock, galimatias, fadde, duvet, dziggetall, dwale, periotic, predicant, younker, quintal, propense, quib, beckett, chauvinism, beluga, gar, hypostyle, soudad, incondite, inly, kelp, jorum, rundlet, rupestrine, caddis, fassle, calcar, flinder, hopple, horary, thorpe, ustative, woof, arcolith, gaum.

All of them in the diction. Almost none of them jawbreakers or overlong. What do any of them mean?

American Women Supreme.

The Countess Szechenyi, nee Gladys Vanderbilt, praised the good taste of American women at a luncheon. She ended her praise with an epigram both striking and true. "The women of all nationalities," she said, "can make their own clothes, but only the American woman can make them so that nobody ever suspects it."

But Two Officers of Revolt Leader's Staff Are Shot.

Mexico City, Mex., Oct. 26.—It was announced that General Felix Diaz, the leader of the latest Mexican revolt, who was captured at Vera Cruz, would not be put to death.

The life of the revolutionary leader was spared, it was said, by President Madero against the protests of his counsellors, including his relatives, who protested against the granting of clemency.

The leniency of the president did not extend, however, to Diaz's officers, and two of these, Major Zarate and Major Cuesta, were shot at Vera Cruz after a court martial.

It was said on high authority that General Diaz would be sentenced to solitary confinement in some military prison. The terms of the sentence have been withheld.

General Diaz still has many friends in Mexico City, where he once was the chief of police, and they had feared that he would be shot after a court martial. The only hope they held was in President Madero's characteristic humanity, and in this they were not disappointed.

WILDCAT ATTACKS YOUNG PREACHER

Runs Mile Down Mountain to Escape Animal.

Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 26.—Attacked by a wild cat, E. Lamont Geissinger, a young preacher and student at Dickinson college, was driven down a steep side of North mountain.

As a result of his experience he was nearly prostrated when he reached Doubling Gap, where members of his fraternity were holding their annual outing.

Geissinger went into the mountains to see the famous Flat Rock. Upon returning to his companions he saw watching him through the bushes a panther-like animal about five feet long.

Geissinger started to run, but the beast leaped after him, made repeated attacks upon him and although Geissinger dealt it several blows on the head with a club he could not beat the animal off.

The young preacher made as fast time as he could for more than a mile down the mountain side, with the wild cat following. It was not until he was inside the hotel that the animal abandoned its pursuit and sneaked back into the timber.
